WILLIAM MARION KETHLEY, LL.D.
President
Delta State Teachers College

As the beauty of our Delta country is reflected in the beauty and fragrance of the magnolia blossom, so is the character and life of our land reflected in the loveliness and strength of character of our young women and young men. Congratulations to you who give this 1954 edition of "The Broom" to the history of Delta State in selecting as a theme the magnolia blossom.

W. M. KETHLEY

JOE FARRAR, Ph.D.
Dean of the Faculty
Delta State Teachers College

Officially the state flower of Mississippi is the Magnolia, around which you have built the theme of "The Broom". In reality the flower of Mississippi is its youth—you and thousands of others like you. If the State ever bursts into bloom in keeping with its potential, it will do so, not because it is the blossoming season for the Magnolia, but because you—all of you—blossom into fine and forceful young men and women willing and prepared to assume your responsibilities as leaders in Mississippi's progress. It is a magnificent challenge you face. I dare you to meet it head on.

Sincerely, Joe Farrar

ZIEGFELD THEATRE

1347 SIXTH AVENUE, NEW YORK 19, N.Y. . CIRCLE 5-5200

December 10, 1953

Dr. Doxie Shuler 600 Sixth Avenue Cleveland, Mississippi

Dear Dr. Shuler:

As an old Southerner (I used to hang around South Street on the Lower East Side), I'm honored and happy to act as judge in the contest to select the most beautiful girl at Delta State Teachers College.

I've made my decision, and I'm passing it along with some misgivings, because (a) I'd like to give each contestant a prize, and (b) I know how wrong I can be — after all, I'm the fellow who, 16 years ago, refused to hire Mary Martin.

May I say, however, that I got a kick out of seeing all the photos. Remembering what some of my old school teachers looked like, it's nice to realize that some of today's kids — in the South, at least — are going to get a break.

Sincerely,
BILLY BOSE

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

All students enrolled in the Delta State Teachers College hold membership in the Student Government Association. Student participation in government functions through a cabinet composed of a men's and a women's cauncil which co-aperates with the faculty in directing and regulating the activities and the life of students on the campus. Student participation, holding as it does an important place in the vital processes of a functioning democracy, is encouraged by the faculty.

We dedicate this section to the memory of Freddy Black, a member of the Sophomore Class at Delta State, who was accidentally drowned during the Christmas Holidays. Freddy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Black of Jennie, Arkansas. He wos a quarterback on the Delta State football team, a member of the track team, and had been elected one of the "Favorites" of the Sophomore Class. His loss is deeply regretted by all of the students and the faculty at Delta State.

DELTA STATE

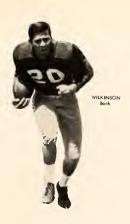

27 40

The Greenies started off rather slowly against Millsaps, but finally got rolling in the last half and plowed the Majors under by a 27-6 count. Next came Howard, and they met with the same fate. By this time two new faces came into grid prominence. These two were Jimmy Sanders and Billy Hubbard. Of course, Willo Goodwin, Jack Whites, Dick Goodman, George Groner and all the other old heads were right in there fighting and they went into the Arkansas A. and M. game with high hopes of making it a 3-0 record. But disaster struck as did an accurate toe in the last few seconds of play and the Greenies dropped a hard to the Boll Weevils. (Continued)

AUSTIN PEAY 20 DELTA STATE ARKANSAS A&M 22 DELTA STATE

Austin Peay followed with a 20–0 decision, but the Deltans turned in what was described by the coaches and fans alike as one of the hardest fought and best games of the year. Then came the Hilltoppers. They took advantage of their many breaks and the Greenies injuries to trip their opponents by a close three point decision. But there is where the Greenies Grid Machine became a destructive menace. Livingston walked on Delta Field ready to trip the Greenies to shreds, but when the dust had settled and our halfbacks had retired for the night, the score was a mere 67–6 in favor of a revamped Statesmen squad. During these games, two new linemen showed what fans could expect in years to come. (Continued)

WESTERN KENTUCKY 21 LIVINGSTON STATE 6

DELTA STATE 19
DELTA STATE 67

Carl "Bull" Smith and Franklin "Bird dag" Talbert looked like the answer to Coach Chadwick's dream of six-foot-plus ends with plenty of beef to spare. But the routing did not stop there. Next week, the Muleriders of Southern State fell to a merciless onslaught at the hands of the tough Delta line and the array of fleety backs. Then along with the rain and slosh, the Lions of Troy State of Alabama came to Delta Field. A bit of last-minute strategy by the Deltans gave the Trojans two points, but also brought the ball out to the 20-yard line, where big George Groner put a toe in the wet pigskin that carried it to the Trojan six and broke their back. Final count, Delta six; Troy two.

TAMPA UNIVERSITY	6	DELTA STATE	13

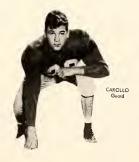

Then the long jaunt to Tampa. Under the capable direction of field general Gip Garner, the Statesmen took the Tampa Trojans into camp with a 13 - 6 victory and the end of another season. And what an end! The Trojans were picked to snuff the Delta fire by at least two touchdowns.

And so it is. A record of six wins and three losses. After a good start, the attack seemed to sag at mid-season, but under the ever watchful eyes of Coaches Gene Chadwick and Horace McCool, the fuse was lit in the Livingston game that flared our boys and was the downfall of four straight Delta opponents.
